

Long Island University--Brooklyn Campus Common Ground Service Learning Program One University Plaza, #H-830, Brooklyn, NY 11201 (718) 488-3372 / fax (718) 780-4303

email: amy.krentzman@liu.edu

Student Learning Agreement

To the student: Complete Section 1 of this form and ask your professor to complete Section 2. Upon completion, make two copies: one for you and one for your professor.

Section 1. (to be completed by student)
Name	Phone
Email	Mailing Address
Service: Briefly describe the nature of your volunte	eer service work you will	be doing and what led you to choose it.
Learning : What do you expect to learn from the exp grade children, increased knowledge of environmen		understating about the elderly, teaching methods for $\boldsymbol{6}^{th}$
Skills: What skills do you expect to develop from the solving, teaching techniques, etc.)	his experience? (e.g., cor	nmunication skills, computer skills, writing, problem
	t my hours with time sheagree to meet the academ	ets and I understand that my agency supervisor will ic or learning requirements that my professor has indicated
Student Signature	Date
Section 2. (to be completed by professor)
In addition to the 24 minimum of service hours requfor the course:	uired, the student will co	mplete the following service-learning related assignments
JournalEssay	Oral Presentation Other
Elaboration of academic assignment(s) related to Co	ommon Ground:
Common Ground participation will be factored into	o final grade as follows:
Faculty Signature	Date	Instructor's Course